

eSafetyWomen

Empowering women to take control online - two hour workshop – Technology facilitated abuse

Introduction
Why is this important?

- a. Domestic and family violence
- b. Why women?
- c. Different groups experience different risks and challenges

Part 1
Technology use, risks and abuse

- a. How connected are you?
- b. Technology facilitated abuse
- c. Risks with popular technologies

Part 2:
Safety and Protection

- a. Taking control: How to plan according to your client's situations
- b. Relevant laws
  - i. Criminal offences
  - ii. Protection orders
- c. Using technology to increase safety
- d. Case study: Part 1

Part 3
How to use technology safely

- How you can support your clients to:
- a. Be smart with devices
  - b. Be smart with social media
  - c. Be alert to surveillance and tracking devices
    - i. Patterns and behaviours
    - ii. Red flags
    - iii. Spying protection
  - d. Case study: Part 2

Part 4
How to support your clients

- a. Services available
- b. Online resources
- c. WESNET/Telstra Safe Connections

