

16 Days of Activism against Gender Based Violence Campaign 2017

As part of the #GE4Us campaign, Women's Health East and local council partners engaged with seven community Ambassadors and asked them to answer the question: "What does gender equality look like in action for you?" Their answers have been turned into #GE4Us stories and memes that can be used across the 16 Days of Activism.

The following memes can be shared on social media, on your website, in newsletters, on e-signatures, around the office or any other way that you can think of during the 16 Days of Activism!

Women's Health East will be sharing a meme or message each day over the 16 Days, in the order shown below. To make sure we have a coordinated approach to the campaign across the region, we ask that you share the same meme on the same day as WHE. We also ask that the memes aren't shared until the 16 Days officially begins on Friday 25th November.

Copies of the memes as an image can be downloaded from the Women's Health East Website by clicking on the relevant link in the below table.

If you have any questions about the campaign, please contact Jayde at Women's Health East – 9851 3700 / jmcburnie@whe.org.au

Thank you for participating
