

WHAT'S HAPPENING ACROSS THE EAST

16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence

Monday 25 November – Tuesday 10 December 2019

The following is a list of public events taking place across the Eastern Metropolitan Region during the 16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence campaign. There are also a number of additional events and actions being taken across organisation and groups internally or closed to the public which are not promoted here, but also contribute to the 16 Days of Activism and collective action to prevent violence against women and girls.

Show your support and register to attend the following public events across the region:

Friday 22 November [before 16 Days]

City of Whitehorse 'Action today, and everyday' International White Ribbon Breakfast 2019

The annual Whitehorse International White Ribbon Breakfast recognises the great work happening in our community around family violence prevention. This free community event raises awareness of how to prevent family violence and violence against women in everyday life. The theme of this year's breakfast is 'Action today and everyday' and focuses on how individuals as active bystanders can effect change, challenge attitudes and take safe and considered action to prevent violence in all forms. Please join Council for this free community event.

When: Friday 22 November 2019 7:30am – 9:00am

Where: Whitehorse Centre, 397 Whitehorse Rd, Nunawading

#mywalkhome Launch Event

Coordinated by YLab, the youth division of Foundation of Young Australians, #mywalkhome is a government funded project focussed around the issues of violence against women, but more specifically the hypervigilance women face daily as they move about public spaces.

The event will feature a screening of the video, followed by a panel discussion, which will focus on facilitating an open discussion around gendered violence and gender equality, and projects and actions which can be undertaken to create a safer community. This event will also mark the launch of our social media campaign and coincides with the beginning of the 16 Days of Activism Against Gender-Based Violence

When: Monday 25th November, 6:00 – 8:00pm

Where: Foundation for Young Australians hub – 21-27 Somerset Place, Melbourne VIC 3000
